Philip de Toledo is president of The Capital Group Companies, Inc. Capital Group is a leading asset management firm serving individual investors, financial intermediaries and institutions around the world through a broad range of investment services that include American Funds, one of the largest U.S. mutual fund families.

Phil is a member of the senior leadership group that oversees the firm globally, establishes its direction and is accountable for the firm's overall results. As a member of the Management Committee, he works closely with the senior leaders of each operating unit to ensure strategic alignment and the achievement of business objectives. In addition to his business management responsibilities, Phil works closely with the Information Technology and Investment Operations groups, Finance and Accounting, Human Resources and other functions that are instrumental in creating the work environment for Capital's associates around the world. He previously served as the principal financial officer.

Prior to joining Capital Group in 1986, he was a tax manager with Deloitte, Haskins & Sells. He received his BA in economics (summa cum laude) from the University of California Los Angeles, and holds a Certified Public Accountant (inactive) certification.

Philip is a trustee and treasurer of the Wilshire Boulevard Temple, a trustee and executive vice president of New Community Jewish High School, and a trustee of the Skirball Cultural Center. He is a former trustee and treasurer of The Buckley School, and a former member of Los Angeles Executive Committee of the American Israel Public Affairs Committee.

Philip lives in Sherman Oaks with his wife and two sons.
