

HARRT DEI & BELONGING NETWORK

The HARRT DEI & Belonging Network is a forum dedicated to providing participants with programming, research, and networking to further the effort of diversity and belonging in the workplace. Many organizations struggle with how to take diversity and inclusion from a theoretical approach to a strategic and structural one with actionable goals. The HARRT DEI & Belonging Network will provide tools to address this challenge.

ABOUT HARRT

Founded in 1986, HARRT at UCLA is an invitation-only membership organization for Chief Human Resources Officers, Chief Diversity Officers and their teams. Our mission is to promote the advancement of human resources management by creating a dialogue between human resources executive members, world-class faculty, and renowned thought leaders. HARRT delivers regular educational events, fosters peer-to-peer collaboration, and promotes the development of transformative HR strategies for the future.
